

Marshall Poe Bio

Following retirement at Boeing as a Senior Large International Military Programs Manager for F-15 Support Systems, Marshall and his wife Deanna moved to Boise. He was also the Program Manager of a large military program in Boeing's Phantom Works division. Prior to his career with Rockwell/Boeing, Marshall retired from the U.S. Air Force as a Master Avionics Instructor for maintenance technicians and pilots.

Marshall has spent over thirty-six years in the avionics engineering field and holds degrees in Avionics Engineering and Technical Instruction. Marshall and Deanna have one son, Nathan, a LtCol and pilot in the U.S. Air Force.
