2022 AWARD WINNER

Eagle Museum of History and Preservation

The Eagle Museum of History and Preservation is housed inside the former Saint Matthew's Catholic Church. The church was designed by well-known Idaho architects Tourtellete and Hummell and constructed in 1938 and was originally located on Eagle Road where the Eagle Elementary School parking lot is located. The structure was moved to the Eagle City Hall complex where it recently became the home for the Eagle Museum of History and Preservation.

The Eagle Museum of History and Preservation moved the old church a couple of years ago. When the church was built Eagle was a small unincorporated agricultural community.
