The Ada County Magistrates Commission Appoints Fafa Alidjani to the Bench

On December 19, 2019, the Ada County Magistrates Commission appointed experienced attorney Fafa Alidjani to the bench. After narrowing a competitive list of eleven applicants to the top four candidates, the Magistrates Commission conducted public interviews with the four top candidates on December 19, 2019, ultimately selecting Ms. Alidjani as Ada County's next magistrate judge.

Ms. Alidjani has been practicing law in Ada County for over two decades. For much of that time, she worked as a Deputy Ada County Prosecutor, prosecuting sexual assault cases and crimes against children. In 2016, Ms. Alidjani opened up her own law practice, where she gained experience in family law litigation, family law mediation and administrative matters.

Ms. Alidjani will put her litigation and family law background to good use in her new position presiding over a family law docket. After an oath of office ceremony, Ms. Alidjani will assume her duties on January 2, 2020.
