FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*** CORRECTED INFORMATION

There were errors in earlier information provided about the sentencing in State v. Adam Paulson. The sentence imposed on Adam Bradley Paulson for vehicular manslaughter was five years fixed, followed by ten years indeterminate for a fifteen year sentence. It was suspended. He was ordered to serve fourteen (14) months jail with credit for time served, pay child support for the victim's children until they reach adulthood, perform 500 hours of community service, wear an alcohol monitor and not purchase, possess or consume alcohol among other conditions.

The Judgment is attached. Reports that he received no "jail" time are inaccurate.
